Mr. Linton Jordan

We Dedicate
This Groul to . . .
Mr. Linton Jordan

in return for the priceless gifts of knowledge and inspiration he has bestowed upon us. It is our way of expressing our gratitude and our sincere appreciation for all that he has done as a teacher and coach for the past four years in Jones County High.

In Memory of Richard Wayne Morris

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

Superintendent's Message:

A diploma in itself does not amount to much, but education, moral values, and worthy ambition are tools that help to develop the type of citizenry necessary for a decent and progressive society. Best wishes to the 1965 graduating class.

PRINCIPAL
JONES COUNTY
HIGH SCHOOL

W. C. Mathews

Principal's Message

The time is drawing near when you will be saying farewells to immediate friends and classmates. This is a time for serious reflection over your years in this school and, in some instances, other schools. True objectivity will reveal that most of your experiences have made a contribution to your overall education. How well you are prepared for higher education and/or adult life will depend completely on the use to which you put these experiences. My wish is that all of you prosper and contribute in the years which lie ahead.

Class Prophecy

As we stroll through the Jelly Stone National Park, on a lovely summer day, we see many of the 1965 graduates gathered together to reminisce about their old high school memories. They came from many areas in the world.

Over next to the famous geyser--Young Faithful, Melidy Adams, news commentator from the White House, and Carol Pitts, wife of the Senator of California, are chatting with the Governor of Georgia, Phil Greene, and Wayne Roberts, sensational cartoonist for Walt Disney Studios.

Watching the monkeys and tropical birds are Cynthia Ussery, Teacher of Psychology at the University of Georgia, and Wayne Garrett, heroic mountain climber who discovered Mt. Olympia on his last expedition.

Strolling through the gardens are Mary Wells, singing sensation at the Copa Cabana; Charlotte Burgess, owner and operator of the Burgess Telephone Company; Gladys Hinton, I.B.M. Automation teacher at the University of Alabama; and Pat Moore, editor of the Atlanta Constitution.

Wishfully looking through the cages of the wild dogs and animals is Ed Anderson, World's Wild Dog Exterminator. Carefully watching him is the spy for the park, Terry Barton, and F.B.I. agent Charles Chandellor.

Enjoying the picnic lunch spread among them are: David Batchelor, manager of the New York Giants; Darrell Partee, famous all-star player for the Boston Celtics; Donna Broach, panelist for the "Keep Laughing" program; Dolli Gordon, dress designer in Paris; and Pamela Sellers, instructor at the Pam's Charm School.

Taking pictures of the beautiful scenery is Larry Oxford, Dean at Georgia Tech, Johnny Mixon, President of the Varsity Drive-in Corporation and John Bryan, Admiral in the United States Navy.

Among the other visitors of the lovely park are: Bernard Borah, Mathematician for the New Space Program in the U.S.; Ann Dial, and Nelsie Gatliff, the first lady jockeys to ever ride in the Kentucky Derby, June Ford, Hollywood's latest discovery, and Ronnie Freeman, her director and manager.

Jerry Guy, Miss FSU, has brought along her portable T.V. She certainly doesn't want to miss her favorite wrestling programs. Watching along with her are Melody Bowden, sales contractor for "Cellars", and Ben Harrison, manager of Harrison's Super Market, Robert Wolford, owner of Wolford Construction Company, and Susan Thurston, owner of several South Georgia Tobacco Houses.

Jerry Greene, Golf Champion of Brazil, and Billie Ruth Sanford, history teacher in a Japanese High School; Jimmy Harris, hunting guide for Lowell Thomas and his expeditions; and Sara Mixon, entertainer in Viet Nam, are our arrivals from other countries.

Timmy Collum, Strongest Man in the World, has just pulled a muscle in his arm, wrestling with the Greatest Alligator Wrestler of the Everglades, Jack Hollingsworth. Peggy Sanders, Ben Casey's Assistant is now massaging it for him.

Joyce Bennett, Taste-tester of Juicy Fruit Chewing Gum Factory, and Eugenia Bean, the magnificent Jelly Bean Sales lady at Woolworth's, are discussing some of their problems with the Nation's most patient Psychiatrist, Patricia Ryle. Listening very attentively are Linda Ennis, whose "Dear Linda" column is now taking over Dear Abby.

A group of men are standing next to the Fountain of Youth. Some of them are Ray Cochran, editor of the Playboy Magazine; Ricky Crane, Speaker of the House;

Mickey Crane, Secretary of Agriculture; Tommy Davis, World's heavyweight Boxing Champion; and Lonnie Ray Moore, owner of the largest ranch in Texas.

Riding the train through the park are Janice Childs, Dean of Women at Emory at Oxford; Sandra Massengale, Justice of the Peace in Haddock, James Minter, Dean of Griswold Tech, Bill Newby, former professor at Princeton University, Jimmy Norman, Forest Ranger of California Redwoods, and Suzy Washburn, cheerleader for the Baltimore Colts.

Just standing and chatting with one another are Thomas Marlow, City Police in his hometown; Paul Simpson, Engineer for U. S. Steel Company; Ronnie Adams, N.A.S.C.A.R. champion driver of the famous Ford; Aubrey Barron, Governor of Juillette, Tommy Bennett, driver for the Ryder Van Lines, Inc.; and Buddy Lancaster, owner of the only Amoco Service Station in Gray, Georgia.

Riding in the sky-lift over the park viewing the scenery from above is Edna Malone, famous Olympic swimmer, Kenneth Twiggs, band director at the Hillsboro Night Club; Tanya Wells, organist for him; Charlotte Williams who has helped her husband build their million dollar home; Louise Gordon, secretary to The United States Ambassador, Jacky Williams, the Rock Hudson of today; and Linda Price, cosmotologist for all the movie stars.

The class president of this '65 class is now gathering everyone together to say goodbye before everyone departs for their jobs and homes. It has been a very lovely day in the Jelly Stone National Park.

 the next Senior class. They'll need it.

The Spirit of Progress

THE SPIRIT OF PROGRESS

Christianity, Patriotism, and Education.
 These factors three decide the fate of a nation.
 Education trains the mind, and develops a skillful hand.
 Patriotism keeps aglow the love of home and native land.
 Christianity works for the good of every land and clan.
 It leads to noble living and teaches the love of God and man.

Miss Jeffie Russell and her seventh grade.

The Growl Staff of 1965 would like to express its appreciation to those who have made possible this edition of the Growl. We express our thanks to our Superintendent, to the Board of Education, to our Principal and teachers for their co-operation. We thank Mrs. Bloodworth for her wonderful guidance and leadership during the past months of yearbook preparation. We would also like to thank our photographers, artists, friends, students, and advertisers for their generosity, time, and patience.

We leave this - the 1965 Growl - to you, in hopes that it will preserve memories of this school year. May it become one of your most treasured possessions.
